This ensures the health safety for all customers as well as the environment-friendliness.

Let's take a look and bring these products to your living space. They will be like the gentle sunshine and breeze from Japan inspiring your home.

TOKYO Collection

Living in Tokyo is a space-saving art experience. In the petite apartments in the crowded capital, Japanese always find ways to arrange their furniture so to make their space be neat, convenient and airy.

- Make use of vertical space (stackable items).
- Use and store things in open shelves for convenience.
- Use versatile, flexible items to fit different spaces.
- Use elegant, bright or warm colors make the space airy and pleasant.

It is the inspiration for Inochi's Tokyo collection of storage shelves.

KAWA Collection

Kawasaki City, once known as a polluted area, has transformed into one of the cleanest cities and the first "Eco-Town" model city in Japan. It shows Japanese typical character of strongly rising through difficulties. It carries a Japanese philosophy that mud and garbage can also turn into beautiful things in life. Therefore, garbage also needs to be separated and arranged carefully in their own space. It is not only to keep our spaces clean and neat, but also to give them an opportunity to regenerate good things for the environment and life.

YOKO Collection

Yokohama, a city famous for its distinctive ramen noodles. Also, Yokohama women, who though are delicate and discreet, very open to distant cuisines and blend them in their dishes to create unique and diverse cuisine. Because of the diversity cooking inspiration, Yokomaha women's kitchen also has many interesting points:

- A general principle in the Yoko kitchen space is to always be neat, clean pre, during or post-cooking. To ensure not only food hygiene and safety, but also avoid mixing flavors between dishes.
- They have a lot of different spices from the world. These spices are carefully stored and noted in clean and tidy containers.
- They also buy lots of bowls and colanders so they can wash and drain numerous foods separately and quickly, which helps them a lot in their habbits of cooking many dishes daily.

What is your cooking principle? Do you follow Yoko kitchen style?

HOKKAIDO Collection

The beautiful northern island of Japan is famous for its foods and fresh seafood. The chefs and housewives here always have secrets to keep food fresh from the processing to storage. Modern Japanese technology also makes their food storage easier, safer and more convenient with food storage container boxes:

- Various sizes to divide and store food rations scientifically
- Use silver ions (Ag+) to prevent bacteria and deodorize
- Completely airtight to keep food fresh
- Resistant to both high and low temperatures
- Do not contain harmful substances

Using Hokkaido food storage container box, you will have all secrets of keeping Japanese food fresh and safe.

HARA Collection

Harajuku is famous as the center of Japanese fashion. But Harajuku is not an ordinary fashion center. Other fashion centers around the world honor and display only high-end and luxury fashions. Harajuku brings together a wide range of clothing and fashion shops, from popular to high-end, from simple to unusual. Therefore, Harajuku is not really a fashion center but a place that people wear to express their opinions, style and personalities.

Hara hanger was born from that spirit. You can put your whole world of fashion on it, in a variety of ways, changing without fear of anyone judging.

NOTORO Collection

Notoro is a beautiful coastal lagoon with crimson glasswort in Japan. Over the seasons, the color of the lake changes by its rich vegetation. Notoro is actually a lagoon surrounded by Hokkaido island before overflowing into the sea. It was like a Japanese baby sheltered by a loving mother but still had the opportunity to boldly explore the vast world ahead.

It is the inspiration of Inochi's Notoro collection. Products with materials and designs to ensure safety for children but with bright colors and interesting details for babies and kids to be constantly curious and explore everything around.

KITA & GOKI Collection

As an island nation with unique geographical structure, Japan is famous for its beautiful and charming nature with many rivers, streams and lakes. Those constantly moving currents are also the story for Inochi to develop the line of dynamic personal water bottles.

Kita water bottle line is inspired by River Kitakami, one of the longest and largest rivers in Japan, where is filled with sakura flower blossom in springs, with golden leaves in falls, and with white snow in winters. The Goki water bottle line is inspired by Five-Color Goshiki-numa Lake whose color changes depending on the time of year, which is like the colorful world in the eyes of children.
